

Being a licensed Ham Radio Operator and dealing with the airwaves all of the time, I appreciate the fact that I can send my traffic at a push of a button. I would hope the FCC would appreciate the use of the airwaves that are being used by XM Radio. At least they are not going to waste.